Dear Jean, There was something else I had to tell you the other night on the telephone — George Cochran!

Also enclosed, the historical map of the old Mineral King Road & an article by Grace Allen from the Fresno Bee 20 years ago. Suppose we can find all those historical spots on the old road across from the canyon?

I am delighted you will be able to come. The Sweet Band has beds enough for 22 people — bring sleeping bags! They have room for 32 people all total — room on the floor in front of fireplace. The house is haunted — I'm sure. So Sweet will tell us all the stories & things that have happened up there. Be have figured out who the ghost is — Zuther Muller was mysteriously shot & killed there in 1916 — when he stayed then on his way down from Munroe being overnight. His murderer was never found.

Also enclosed — some more folded on the hike for Bruton Peterson? Yes! We need membership renewals! He gave all our kids memberships for Christmas, & so did Jim & Janette Barton. John Elliot has to fill out the National Register papers yet & get them completed — so we do need to pay him! We have to get everything all together to take up to the California State Historic Preservation office also — much to do yet.
Louise Jackson ^{Crowley} called last night — her book entitled "Budak" should be out this Spring — we hope — has been delayed.
She will be coming on our hike too — she is delightful!

See you soon —

Love,
Gladys
